Your choice

ANCHOR Inclusion (Early Help Support CIC) would like to take staff-training photographs and publish selected images on anchorinclusion.co.uk to explain its training services. Staff names will not be published under this permission. This does not include video, social media or advertising elsewhere.

☐ YES: I agree to being photographed and to selected photographs being published on the ANCHOR Inclusion website for the purpose and period above.

☐ NO: I do not agree to being photographed or to website publication. Please arrange a photo-free option.

Choosing no has no effect on training, fees, certificates, school credit or future services. You can change your mind by emailing info@anchorinclusion.co.uk with the session date and enough information to identify the image. ANCHOR will stop future use and remove controlled online copies where possible. Copies already downloaded by others may not be recoverable.

For the school organiser and photographer

School permission to photograph on the premises is separate from each person's consent. Check choices before taking images. Avoid pupils, personal records, screens and protected teaching content. Keep signed forms securely; do not publish or leave them in an open room. Record withdrawal requests and the agreed end date.
